

Diagnostic Veterinary Anatomic Pathologist – The Animal Disease Research and Diagnostic Laboratory (ADRDL) at South Dakota State University

invites applications for a 12-month, tenure-track, Diagnostic Veterinary Anatomic Pathologist position as an Assistant, Associate or Full Professor based on candidate qualifications and University standards.

The laboratory is an AAVLD accredited, full service laboratory within the Veterinary and Biomedical Sciences Department. The ADRDL is housed within a new, state-of-the-art facility, and the caseload consists primarily of spontaneous disease in livestock, but also includes a diverse range of species and case types.

The duties of this position are 70% diagnostic service including necropsies, histopathologic examinations, and consultation with laboratory clients, and 20% research and 10% teaching (primarily team teaching and/or pathology resident training). A DVM degree from an AVMA accredited and approved veterinary college or equivalent, and documentation of a minimum of 3 years of formal training in comparative veterinary pathology (e.g. residency and/or MS/PhD in veterinary pathology) are the minimum qualifications. Effective communication (oral and written) and interpersonal relation skills, and the ability to collaborate are expected. Salary and rank will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Full consideration will be given to applications received by June 15, 2022. To apply, visit Posting link: <https://yourfuture.sdbor.edu/postings/27441> Please and follow the electronic application process. For information on the position, please contact Dr. Tamer Sharafeldin at (605) 688-5171 or tamer.sharafeldin@sdstate.edu. For questions on the electronic employment process, contact SDSU Human Resources at (605) 688-4128.

The department actively provides access to and opportunities for all to receive the benefit of and participate in education, research, and service and is especially interested in candidates that can contribute to this land-grant access mission. South Dakota State University is an AA/EO employer – vets, disability.
